Virginia Coalition of Police and Deputy Sheriffs Endorse

Ray Morrogh

September 27, 2007

The Virginia Coalition of Police and Deputy Sheriffs, which represents state police officers, deputies and local police officers throughout the Commonwealth, has endorsed Ray Morrogh for Fairfax County Commonwealth's Attorney.

Ray Morrogh is a demonstrated leader. He is recognized across the Commonwealth for his depth of understanding of public safety issues based on over two decades of service in the Commonwealth Attorney's office. His knowledge of law enforcement and prosecution spans the entire spectrum of issues from gangs to homicides to child abuse to terrorism.

His commitment to law enforcement officers and their families is reflected in the partnerships he has developed during his many years of service. He has earned the respect and admiration of police officers, state troopers and deputies from throughout Northern Virginia.

Ray consistently responds with realistic solutions to the problems faced each day by our officers and the lawyers of the Commonwealth Attorney's office. His contributions to the safety of Fairfax County and Virginia are immeasurable and our members are proud to stand with him every day.

The Virginia Coalition of Police and Deputy Sheriffs is committed to improving working lives of its members. Its mission is to be a strong and effective voice for the rank-and-file law enforcement officer. The VCOPS is an affiliate of the International Union of Police Associations.

Respectfully,

Joshua P. David
